Preparation & Connection

High Holy Day Checklist • Mission & Vision

On behalf of our entire staff, we wish you a Shana Tova — a year of health, connection, and peace. As we prepare for the High Holy Days, we know that many of us are entering this sacred season with full hearts — carrying the complexity of this past year: moments of uncertainty and challenge, yes, but also memories of joy, growth, and gratitude.

While the prayers and melodies feel familiar, our services are always shaped to reflect where we are — spiritually, emotionally, and communally — in this moment. Through music, reflection, and meaningful additions, we hope to create an experience that is both grounding and uplifting.

To help deepen and enrich your experience, we are once again creating a High Holy Days Companion Booklet. It will include these thoughtful elements, as well as our New Year's Greetings, "Book of Memory," and a special thank you to our High Holy Day sponsors. The booklet will accompany us throughout the season and will be yours to take home after Yom Kippur.

We invite you to be part of this meaningful project by completing the attached page and returning it to the office — or by visiting <https://www.tsnd.org/high-holy-days/>

May this season bring renewal, connection, and peace.

Rabbi Alan Litwak | Cantor Norman Cohen Falah | Rabbi David Paskin | Susan Warech
